

Local and Personal Items

(From Friday's Daily.)

J. L. O'Herry was registered at the DeSoto Hotel yesterday from Tampa.

Mr. Jack Johnson, of Arcadia, visited friends in this city last Monday.—Wauchula Advocate.

Mr. P. D. Weaver, of Arcadia, was in the city on business during the week.—Wauchula Advocate.

Col. W. E. Leithner left this morning for DeLand, where he goes to attend to legal matters.

D. T. Carlton, who has been attending to business in Punta Gorda since Tuesday, returned this morning.

Andrew Carter, editor of the Arcadia Enterprise, is spending the day in Gardner and Zolfo.

Judge W. D. Bell returned this morning from a short business trip to Fort Meade.

Rud Platt, of Arcadia, Sundayed at Zolfo, perhaps on account of feminine attractions.—Zolfo Truth.

J. C. Longwell was among the Arcadians enjoying the fishing here Monday.—Punta Gorda Herald.

A. W. McDonald, of Wauchula, was a business visitor to this city this morning.

Mrs. Laura McElenthian, of Sebring, is visiting this week with her sister, Mrs. Annie Hollingsworth.

B. F. Welles was a prominent Arcadian in the city Monday and Tuesday.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Mrs. Mabel B. Jones, of Arcadia, is spending the week with friends in this city.—Punta Gorda Herald.

M. E. Albright, of Arcadia, spent Monday and Tuesday here on a surveying job.—Punta Gorda Herald.

E. E. Skipper, a prominent banker of Bartow, was transacting business in this city yesterday.

H. T. Thomas represented Wauchula in town today. He was here attending to business at the court house.

J. K. McLellan, a trustee of the Punta Gorda high school, is among the prominent out of town visitors in the city today.

J. B. Meyers and L. A. Pope, two well known citizens of Boca Grande, were seen on the streets of this city yesterday.

George Russell and L'Honniedieu, two well known farmers of Fort Ogden, motored into Arcadia for a few hours' visit with friends yesterday.

D. W. McLeod, manager of the Consolidated Title Company, returned yesterday from Wildwood, where he attended the annual meeting of the state presidency.

YOU RISK NOTHING.

This Broad Guarantee Protects You—Your Money Back Is Not Satisfied.

If you suffer from piles you should take advantage of this offer. It is simply this—no matter what kind of piles you are troubled with, if you use Rexall Pile Treatment, and it does not relieve you, we will give back your money. We could not possibly do more to show our faith in this remedy. We have observed its action in so many cases, have been thanked so many times by grateful people to whom we have recommended it, and feel so certain that it will help you, that we do not hesitate in guaranteeing it.

Rexall Pile Treatment is easy and pleasant to use. It comes in a tube furnished with a special tip, which permits you to apply the soothing, healing contents direct to the trouble.

Do you suppose we would guarantee this remedy if we didn't have faith in it? Do you suppose we would risk our reputation and standing by even suggesting a remedy to you that we didn't feel was all that was claimed for it? You know we would not. Therefore, when we not only recommend Rexall Pile Treatment to you, for any kind of piles, but guarantee that it will relieve you, or money back, why should you hesitate? Put us to the test. If you are suffering from piles in any form, no matter how painful they may be, you ought to, in justice to yourself, test this remedy. If your case is a mild one you should give it this treatment at once to provide against its growing worse. Price 50 cents. Sold in this community only at our store, The Rexall Store, Wey's Drug Store.

T. F. Weaver, father of E. J. Weaver, of this city, returned yesterday from a several months' visit to the east coast. Mr. Weaver made the trip through the country in his Ford.

O. A. Love, of Tampa, is spending several days in Arcadia attending to business matters. While here he is registered at the DeSoto Hotel.

Mrs. T. J. Hutchinson, an accomplished matron of Jacksonville, is registered at the DeSoto Hotel for a few days.

B. Vance, manager and agricultural editor of the Arcadia News, is spending today in Fort Myers on business.

Lloyd Davis, of Arcadia, spent Sunday with his mother, Mrs. Clara Y. Davis, in this city.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Mr. S. A. McBride, of Arcadia, was a pleasant caller at the Advocate shop yesterday evening.—Wauchula Advocate.

Col. L. Grady Burton left this morning on a short business trip to Bowling Green. He will probably return tonight.

S. I. Lower, after spending several days in Arcadia attending to business, left yesterday afternoon for his home in Tampa.

Mr. Glenn Appling and Mr. Will Mitchell, of Arcadia, have been attending the high school commencement exercises in Wauchula this week.—Wauchula Advocate.

Hon. William Whitten, a member of the board of county commissioners from Punta Gorda, spent a few hours in Arcadia this morning transacting business at the court house.

Rev. R. T. Bell, pastor of the local Presbyterian church, has returned from Wildwood, Fla., where he went several days ago to attend a meeting of the state presidency.

H. L. Davis, general manager of the Tennessee-Florida Land Company, left last night for Punta Gorda, where he will spend a few days attending to business matters.

Solving was represented in Arcadia by the following well-known citizens, who were transacting business at the court house: J. W. Durrance, Bob Burton and G. G. Albrighton.

Harry Cross and A. J. Dozier returned yesterday from a several days' fishing trip to Boca Grande, where they report they caught many pounds of fish.

H. D. Cameron, an influential citizen of Bowling Green, is attending to business in Arcadia today. While here he is the guest of his daughter, Mrs. A. L. Durrance.

Hon. Will P. Langford, the present DeSoto county representative to the state legislature, and candidate for re-election, returned this morning from Jacksonville and other cities in the northern portion of the state.

Mrs. and Mrs. L. H. Reid, who have been visiting Arcadia their home for the past three years, left yesterday for Punta Gorda, where they will spend the summer, probably returning to this city next winter.

Prof. Charles Bickley, assistant principal of the Punta Gorda high school, arrived in Arcadia yesterday afternoon for a short visit to his brother, County Superintendent J. O. Bickley, and wife.

Prof. V. O. Fussell made the Truth an appreciated call Saturday evening, while on his way from Sebring to Arcadia. The professor has been teaching a term-end school at Red Beach.—Zolfo Truth.

Mr. and Mrs. Lonie Valsek, after several days spent here with Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Oliver, returned to their home in Arcadia Monday. Mr. Valsek is a brother of Mrs. Oliver.—Punta Gorda Herald.

Mrs. Marlin McAdow desires an exhibit at the Horticultural Association of pine straw and wire grass products. All ladies who have work of this kind that they will permit to be used will kindly send to Mrs. Annie Hollingsworth.

Misses Daisy and Dora Ayers, teachers of the Arcadia school, and Miss Inez Clark, attending the Normal there, spent the week-end at the hospitable home of Mr. and Mrs. Preston Ayers, of this place.—Zolfo Truth.

Miss Lena Whidden, of Useppa Island, who stopped over in this city Wednesday on her way home from a trip to visit relatives in Jacksonville and Orlando to spend a few days

NO REASON FOR IT.

When Arcadia Citizens Show a Way.

There can be no reason why any reader of this who suffers the tortures of an aching back, the annoyance of urinary disorders, the pains and dangers of kidney ills, will fail to heed the words of a neighbor who has found relief. Read what an Arcadia citizen says:

I, S. Daugherty, farmer, Route No. 2, five miles southwest of Arcadia, says: "I was troubled by pains in my back and a tired, dull feeling. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage, and I had to get up at night. In the morning I felt more tired than when I went to bed. I knew my kidneys were disordered, and when I was told to try Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a supply at the Arcadia Drug Store. I could see they were helping me at once, and the pain in my back soon stopped. One box removed the trouble."

Price 50c. at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Kidney Pills—the same that Mr. Daugherty had, Foster-Milburn Co., Props., Buffalo, N. Y.

here with her aunt, Mrs. Jim Jones, left last night for her home.

Ed. Scott returned this morning from Jacksonville, where he attended a meeting of the Florida State Road Department, of which he is chairman. Mr. Scott, who has been away from the city for the past two weeks, visited several cities in the northwestern part of the state, besides making a tour of the southern section of Georgia.

(From Saturday's Daily.)

Bill Seely, a prosperous farmer of Gardner, is greeting friends in town today.

C. L. Reese, of Meridian, Miss., is registered at the DeSoto Hotel for a few days' stay in this city.

Max Croston, of Kissimmee, is transacting business in this city today.

Marvin McLellan, of Fort Ogden, was transacting business at the court house this morning.

Among the out of town visitors seen at the court house this morning was J. M. Keen, of Fort Ogden.

Among the out of town people spending a few days in Arcadia is R. G. Matthew, who is stopping at the DeSoto Hotel.

Mr. and Mrs. Harvey Stanley, popular people of the deep water city, Boca Grande, are spending a few days in Arcadia.

W. P. Franklin, R. E. Haley and N. H. Hunter, of Fort Myers, are registered at the Arcadia House for a short stay in this city.

Mrs. Frank B. Smith and daughter, Miss Christine Peters, of Bunker, were visiting friends and relatives in this city yesterday.

County Judge W. D. Bell issued a marriage license to Phil Coker and Miss Millie Rogers, both of Sweetwater, this morning.

T. A. Cassells, manager of the Cassells Medicine Company, of this city, is attending to business in Bartow today.

Levi and Marion Parker, of the Joshua Creek section of the county, are spending today in Arcadia visiting friends.

John Hamilton, a well known orange grower of Nocatee, was greeting friends in Arcadia for a few hours this morning.

C. E. Cowart is spending today in Bowling Green attending a picnic given by the people of that town. He will return tonight.

Earl (Toad) Hooker, a well known young farmer of Joshua Creek, is greeting friends in town for the first time in several months today.

S. J. Carlton returned yesterday from Punta Gorda, where he has been for the past week attending to business matters.

Mrs. Zula King and her little son, Russell, of Pine Level, are spending a few days in Arcadia with Mrs. Florida King.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Richards and their son, J. E. Richards, Jr., after spending the past week in this city visiting relatives, left last night for their home in Dayton, Ohio.

Mr. and Mrs. Teen Waldron, accompanied by their daughter, Miss Eula Waldron, of Brownville, motored down to Arcadia this morning and are spending the day here visiting relatives and friends.

Hon. T. E. Fielder and family, of Gardner, motored down to Arcadia this morning and are spending the day here with friends. Mr. Fielder was at one time sheriff of DeSoto county, and is well known here.

Mrs. Mary H. Smith left yesterday afternoon for Tallahassee to attend the annual meeting of the Women's Missionary Convention, which convenes in that city today. Mrs. Smith will be gone for a week.

Mrs. J. M. Murdock and little daughter, M. dote, after spending the past two weeks in the northern part of the state, returned to this city last night for a few days' visit with friends.

Charles S. Gaines, manager of the Consolidated Land Company, of Jacksonville, owners of considerable DeSoto county land, is spending a few days in Arcadia attending to business for his company. He is a guest at the Arcadia House.

Rev. M. H. Norton, presiding elder of the Bartow district of the Florida Methodist conference, arrived in Arcadia this morning. Rev. Norton will conduct both the morning and evening services tomorrow at the Methodist church.

Mrs. R. E. Whidden returned this morning from Jacksonville, where she has been since the first part of the week. Mrs. Whidden went up to represent the local chapter of the Eastern Star at the annual meeting of the state organization held in that city this week.

Luther Williams, of Chattanooga, Tenn., after spending several days in this city and vicinity looking over the general conditions of this county, left yesterday for his home. Mr. Williams was very well pleased with this country, and has about made up his mind to permanently settle here.

Miss Mae L. Wells, of Tallahassee, arrived in Arcadia last night on a short business trip. Miss Wells is assistant state home demonstration agent, and is here in the interest of her work. Miss Wells, who is registered at the Arcadia House, will remain in this city until Monday, when she will return to Tallahassee.

Med Reid left this morning for Bartow, where he will be joined by his wife and two little children, who went up a few days ago to visit relatives. From there Mrs. Reid and children will go to a summer resort in North Carolina, where they will spend the summer. Mr. Reid will only accompany them to Lakeland, returning to Arcadia tonight.

H. L. Davis, general manager of the Tennessee-Florida Land Company, who, with Luther Williams, spent yesterday fishing at Punta Gorda, reports that he helped land a 300-pound Jew fish on the public dock at that place yesterday. Besides the Jew fish, Mr. Davis and Mr. Williams caught many other fish.

County Superintendent of Public Instruction L. O. Bishop, Captain George M. Lynch, principal of the DeSoto County High School, and Charles Bickley, assistant principal of the Punta Gorda high school, motored over to Avon Park last night to attend the commencement exercises of the Avon Park school. From there they went to Venus this morning to attend the big picnic being given there today.

Mrs. P. W. McAdow, a prominent matron of Punta Gorda, arrived in Arcadia this morning to attend a meeting of the combined committees of the Arcadia Commercial Club and the Arcadia Civic League, which met this morning to consider plans for the Horticultural Association meeting in this city next week. Mrs. McAdow, who is vice-president of the Horticultural Association, will return to Punta Gorda tonight.

In the presence of most of the court house officials and several business visitors, Mr. Arthur S. Hendry, of Opa, and Miss Pearl McGinnis, of Vandalia, were solemnly joined in the holy bonds of matrimony by County Judge W. D. Bell. The wedding occurred about 11 o'clock, and the happy young couple immediately left the court house for a friend's house to wait until train time.

Among the many Arcadians who have been hiking to different fishing holes in this county are the people named below, who motored down to Punta Gorda yesterday morning, and after catching all the fish they wanted, returned to Arcadia last night: Mr. and Mrs. C. D. Borling, Messrs. Ollie Grub, Harley Watson, R. O. Turner, R. W. Everett, J. W. Craig, W. J. Willingham, Archibald Willingham, Quinn Smith, Bill Mitchell, Tom Mitchell and Glenn Appling.

Ed. Ley and Lovick Holzendorff returned this morning from a few days' fishing trip to Fort Myers and Boca Grande. Ed. says that while crossing the pass at South Boca

Grande yesterday their boat came very near being capsized, because a bad squall came up while they were about half way across. The engine threatened to sever diplomatic relations with the boat, but that by applying a policy of "watchful waiting," the crisis was soon passed, and they were landed on good old United States dirt.

CHILD OF MR. AND MRS. E. H. KING DIED LAST NIGHT.

(From Friday's Daily.)

The little five weeks' old girl baby of Mr. and Mrs. E. H. King passed away last night after an illness extending over the past three weeks. The little girl, suffering from stomach trouble, had been continually growing worse for the last few days, and her death last night was not entirely unexpected. The funeral services were held this afternoon from the home of Mr. and Mrs. King, and from there the little body was carried to Oak Ridge cemetery for burial. The bereaved family have the heartfelt sympathy of the entire town in this their hour of great sorrow.

DR. BARNETT PROVED THE WINNER.

The axiom that perseverance wins has been very forcibly proven in this city. Dr. D. G. Barnett, a well known dentist of Arcadia, has been striving for the past year to dig, burn, or blow up an old stump out of his yard. Any person passing by his home between daylight and 7 o'clock on any morning during this time can truthfully say that Dr. Barnett has worked hard on this particular stump. This morning he was rewarded for all his efforts by the enemy's complete surrender.

MISS HICKS MARRIED.

Miss Jane Belle Hicks, of Arcadia, and W. J. Ellington, of Upton county, Georgia, were married Saturday night at Jacksonville at the home of W. E. Wood, engineer for the J. B. McCrary Company.

Miss Hicks is well known in Fort Meade, having lived here for a year or more, while Mr. Ellington was foreman for the J. B. McCrary Company in installing a sanitary sewer system in Fort Meade.

It was here four months ago that the young couple met, and it being a case of love at first sight, the wedding bells followed as a natural consequence.

Mr. and Mrs. Ellington live at South Jacksonville, where they have the best wishes of their many friends.—Fort Meade Leader.

L. AND E. CLUB.

The L. and E. Club met with Mrs. John W. Burton, on South Volusia avenue, Wednesday afternoon, with the following members present: Messrs. Jake Wey, W. H. Seward, J. C. Kemp, Louis Koch, R. L. Cline, D. G. Barnett, A. J. Dozier, W. E. Leithner, J. M. York, W. E. Dunwoody, H. L. King, R. O. Turner, H. L. Carlton and D. L. McSwain. The guests included Messrs. Ed. Greene, Aude W. James, Edmondson, Burroughs, Tholin, H. L. Burton, L. J. Burton and Miss Elizabeth Gray.

At the close of a most enjoyable afternoon the guests were served with delicious refreshments, which consisted of chicken salad, stuffed apples with whipped cream, cheese sandwiches, olives and ice tea.

Mrs. Burton was assisted in serving by Mrs. Horace L. Burton, Miss M. R. Nell Burton and Miss Nell Burton.

THE POLYANNA CLUB.

Miss Frances Britt entertained the Polyantha Club at her home on Manatee avenue Saturday afternoon, April 14th. A part of the afternoon was very pleasantly spent in sewing, and after the social hour the hostess served delicious refreshments consisting of banana salad and wafers.

The members present were Misses Susie Stonebraker, Marjory Clay, Charlotte Seward, Birdie Scott, Gussie Hinson, Gertrude Davis, Ida Belle Appleby, Clara Blake, Mattie Langford and Elizabeth Jones.

The club will meet Saturday afternoon, April 21st, at the home of Miss Gussie Hinson.

POSTMASTER AT MOFFITT IN TROUBLE.

J. T. Howard, postmaster at Moffitt, who was recently indicted by the federal grand jury in Jacksonville on a charge of embezzling postoffice funds, has been arrested by United States Deputy Marshal L. A. Reynolds, at Tampa. The postmaster gave bond for $1,000, which secured his release until May 10th, when he will be given a preliminary hearing in Tampa. The former assistant postmaster at Moffitt, who was arrested a few days ago on a charge of conspiracy in connection with the embezzlement of the funds, has been released on bond also. The postoffice at Moffitt is now in charge of a new assistant postmaster.

No. 666

This is a prescription prepared especially for MALARIA or CHILLS & FEVER. Five or six doses will break any case, and if taken then as a tonic the Fever will not return. It acts on the liver better than Calomel and does not gripe or sicken. 25c

WANTED

50,000 MEN

To Smoke

Blunt Baker Special

Tropical Smoker

J. V. B. Long Filler

G. H. & N. Smoker

or

Little Improved Arcadia

Made In Arcadia

James V. Baker

Phone 171

over Whitehead's Grocery

The deposits in banks reflect the ready financial strength of the people, and it is therefore important that all money be deposited in banks where it can be made to serve the purpose intended. Assist us in bringing idle funds into circulation, and by so doing you will increase the working capital of the country. Our statements as published from time to time not only speak well of our bank, but of our town and community. A good word from you to a neighbor or friend will be appreciated by the

State Bank of Zolfo
ZOLFO, FLA.

WE ARE "ON TAP" AT ALL TIMES

As regards services in plumbing work, whether it be a new job or merely repairs. And the work we do is thorough and always satisfactory, while the prices we charge are satisfactory, too. There is no time wasted by us, as we employ skilled workmen only, who know their business thoroughly, and use only the best materials in order to ensure the most satisfactory results.

F. S. MARKETT

Welles Building ARCADIA

LEST WE FORGET
The Graves of Our Dead
Turner Marble and Granite Co
HIGH GRADE MONUMENTS
985 TWIGGS ST., TAMPA, FLA.

HOW COULD SHE?

Mistress: "Did you see if the butcher had pig's feet?"
Maid: "No, ma'am, I couldn't; he had his boots on."